

Team Introduction: Sunrise, KOREA

SUNRISE is a club founded in March 2004 by its core members including An Hyang-Mi who is Korea's first official female baseball player and now general manager of SUNRISE. Its members range from student, career woman to housewife and from heterosexual to transsexual. Although SUNRISE is based in Seoul, it does not hesitate to be multicultural as it's open to any nationality, race or skin color. SUNRISE has 30 regular members including two Japanese and a transsexual.

SUNRISE has earned the first international experience at the 4th Women's World Series 2004 held in Japan although the result was not as good as to proudly tell. This year, SUNRISE ranked the 3rd at 2007 KBO (Korea Baseball Organization) presidential cup and won the semifinals at 2007 WBAK (Women Baseball Association Korea) presidential cup.

SUNRISE's goal is to boost women's baseball and to play baseball for serious fun.

Team Introduction: Allies, HONG KONG

Allies was formed in Aug 2007 in order to prepare for the first international women's baseball tournament hosted by HKBA in Hong Kong. Most Allies teammates had participated in the 4th Women's Baseball World Series held in Japan in 2004 and the 2nd Women's Baseball World Cup held in Taiwan in 2006. Being the delegates of the Allies for the forthcoming "Oregon Scientific Phoenix Cup" Hong Kong International Women's Baseball Tournament 2008, we are very honored to have the opportunity to play with the elite women's baseball teams from Asia-Pacific and North America regions. We sincerely thank the tournament's title-sponsor, Oregon Scientific, and the Hong Kong Baseball Association for their tremendous supports in making the event successful. We believe this would be a brand new page in the history of international women's baseball.

Allies隊於2007年8月為應香港棒球總會為舉辦此次國際女子棒球錦標賽成立。Allies隊大部份成員曾參加2004年於日本舉辦的第四屆女子棒球世界賽及2006年於台灣舉辦的第二屆世界盃女子棒球錦標賽。作為Allies隊成員，我們非常榮幸能有機會在香港與來自亞太區及北美區的優秀女子棒球隊切磋球技。我們衷心感謝Oregon Scientific及香港棒球總會的全力支持，令香港成功舉辦此項國際性比賽，也為國際女子棒球發展開啟新一頁。
